The Juventus midfielder was provisionally suspended from playing last month after a drugs test found elevated levels of testosterone in his system. On Friday, the 30-year-old's failed drugs test, which came following a Serie A game against Udinese on August 20, was confirmed after his B sample also tested positive.

Explained: Why Paul Pogba hopes to avoid long doping ban after testing ...

The tribunal said Pogba had violated anti-doping rules when they found the prohibited substance "non-endogenous testosterone metabolites," adding that the results were "consistent with the exogenous origin of the target compounds."
